AWARDS Banker
2008
Celebrating success
in African banking

London, September 2008

Dear Sir / Madam,

IC Publications, publisher of African Business and African Banker magazines, are delighted to invite you to the 2nd African Banker Awards. The awards ceremony and gala dinner will take place on 10th October 2008 at the Ballroom, Willard Intercontinental Hotel in Washington DC, during the World Bank/IMF annual meetings.

The prestigious event is designed to recognise excellence in banking and finance in Africa and reward the people and financial institutions that are making a difference on the continent. Participants of the African Banker Awards will include representatives from the leading African banks and financial institutions, international investment banks and private equity groups working in Africa, executives from intergovernmental organisations as well as African government officials and diplomats.

Over the past 41 years, IC Publications has consistently presented clear analysis and news reports on all that has been important to Africa in its best-selling magazines. Given its expertise on the region and its access to the key players shaping the future of the continent, IC has launched prestigious events representing a platform to celebrate a winning Africa.

We look forward to receiving confirmation of your acceptance of this invitation. We hope to welcome you to this special event to reward the best bankers and financial institutions of the year in Africa.

Please be assured of our highest regards at all times,

Yours sincerely,

Omar Ben Yedder
